

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, 1876, with transcript

Letter from Miss Mabel G. Hubbard to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. (Saturday morning, 1876?) My dear Alec:

I have been feeling so troubled and frightened at what I did Thursday. I do not regret it and never will, but it is such a solemn thing I feel the responsibility very much and it has made me very nervous and almost doubting if I have love enough to give. But I trust in your love and feel strong and sure in it.

I am very tired with the excitement of the whole past week and cannot write more now. Only I am very sorry I would not let you come yesterday. Come Sunday morning if you can so we can have a good talk.

Your, Mabel. Saturday morning.
